A little practice on words serves to draw out distinctions and discriminations of differences, and is a delightful exercise in thinking and analysis for a class. If any one doubts, let him try it and see what life and reality it puts into the study. A School Newspaper. We all admit that a boy comes into the world to learn something about it; first of the world nearest and of today, next and afterwards of past times and things remote. Let him have his information instant and at first hand if possible. Everybody takes a newspaper now-a-days, a paper of some sort for his family reading, but the schools await theirs. A good one would take wonderfully, and as wonderfully improve the pupil s reading by...
