Kensington Publishing, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 171 x 105 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The epic saga of the men and women who fought for a new life on the American frontier. In 1891 the Dixon family is building a future in booming Bozeman. Twin brothers Louis and Caleb Dixon, high spirited and supremely confident, dream of becoming ranchers along the Powder River--a dream that plunges them into a deadly range war on a land already blood-stained by massacre and loss. They have no way of knowing that joining the modest T Stone ranch in the foothills of the Bighorn Mountains will put them in the gunsights of hired killers and will bring them face to face with a depraved, sadistic murderer. Flushed with courage, the boys are willing to ride and fight against a better-armed enemy--but then this range war touches too close to home. For the Dixon boys--for the whole Dixon family--what hangs in the balance is survival, or justice, and the hope for the future on this harsh and beautiful land.
