Excerpt: . Alexamenos should be compared a Christian medal (circa temp. Honorii) described by Cavedoris in the Rev. Num. for 1857, of which I send a tracing, which I will ask you kindly to return, where au ass and her colt are made in some strange way to symbolize Jesus Christ. Alexander s image (on the obverse) was a known magical charm. P. 43. The gem named is one, I suppose, in the British Museum. I omitted it from Gems in Smith and Cheetham s Dictionary of Christian Antiquities, because I could not feel sore that it was Christian. The figure can hardly be Jesus Christ himself, holding his own self symbolized; but I would not be too sure. The nimbus does not prove that it is Christian (see Martigny). I once fancied that it might be a saint, holding fast by Christ, and going...
