I am left like a wanderer in the wilderness, to proceed at hazard. I am answerable for consequences, and blamed, without the privilege of defence. In nothing was this disposition to perplex more apparent than in the governor s replies respecting Fort Cumberland. Washington had repeatedly urged the abandonment of this fort as a place of frontier deposit, being within the bounds of another province, and out of the track of Indian incursion; so that often the alarm would not reach there until after the mischief had been effected. He applied, at length, for particular and positive directions from the governor on this head. The following, says he, is an exact copy of his answer: -- Fort Cumberland is a lcing s fort, and built chiefly at the charge of the colony, therefore properly under our direction until a new governor is appointed. Now, whether I am to understand this aye or no to the plain simple question asked, Is the fort to be continued or removed? I know not. But in all important matters I am directed in this ambiguous and uncertain way. Governor Dinwiddie subsequently made himself explicit on this point. Taking offence at some of Washington s comments on the military affairs of the frontier, he made the stand of a self-willed and obstinate man, in the case of Fort Cumberland; and represented it in such light to Lord Loudoun, as to draw from his lordship an order that...
