Books of the Dead. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 150 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.5in. Meet Macon. Tattoo artist. Athlete. Family man. Hes planning to run a marathon, but the event becomes something terrible. During a warm-up run, Macon falls prey to a bizarre man and his wife who dwell in an underground drug-smuggling tunnel. They raise their twin children in a way Macon couldnt imagine: skinning unexpected victims for food and money. And Macon, and his family, are next. As the family v. family showdown transpires underground and off the beaten path, the vulnerability of running on a trail - alone but for the watchers in the woods - makes the setting unique and well-crafted. Written with verve, surprising compassion, and bite, On the Lips of Children is a seriously demented must read. Sacha Z. The story alternates between harsh reality and an almost dream-like surreality while never losing sight of the real heart of good storytelling. Matthews demonstrates that you dont have far down to go to reach the underworld, yet the road back up is a lot harder run than anyone is prepared to make.
