The struggles we face can take many forms, but the truth is, we all deal with them in different ways. After many years of not having a concrete way of dealing with them, the Author took it upon himself to carve out that path for himself. Poetry blossomed, and it became a way of expressing the simple truths of life. Paper shuffled, and it became the way to share these truths with others. Come on a journey where life is explored through poetry. Love, Life and Tragedy.
