Not illustrated. 1838 Excerpt: .a new and distressing appearance to my affairs; a fire broke out in the house we were repairing; in which my tools, and with them all ray views and hopes were consumed. I was now cast on the world without a friend, a shilling, or even the means of subsistence. This, however, would have been but slightly felt by me, as I had always been the child of misfortune, had not the partner of my life been im merged in the same afflicting circumstances. There was, however, no alternative; and I now began to think of some new course of life, in which my former studies might prove advantageous. I thought that of a country schoolmaster would be the most likely to answer my purpose. I therefore applied myself to the study of Murray s English Exercises, and improved myself in arithmetic. There was, however, one...
