Council Bluffs joins with me in wishing you a most happy reunion. George H. Richmond. RECORDING SECRETARYS REPORT. Headquarters Society Of The Army Of The Tennessee, Recording Secretarys Office, P. O. Box 35. Cincinnati, Ohio, October 5, 1905. General G. M. Dodge, President: General: --1 have the honor to submit the following report: Our last meeting was in Washington, October 15 and 16, 1903, at the dedication of the Sherman monument. The only proceedings had at this reunion were the reports of officers and election of new officers, and the dedication of the monument. In view of the fact that the Congressional Joint Committee on the Library published a book giving full details of the dedication, and also of the proceedings of our meeting, no volume was printed by us of this reunion. In the forthcoming report of the...
