Excerpt: .book I have mentioned by name in this article was thought so little of by publisher and author that it was n t even copyrighted, and to name others that have boomed in spite of publishers would be merely to deal in the tritest kind of truism. Cast about in your mind and recall incidents A Message to suit No advertiser has ever had the TO Garcia talent to force a thoroughly bad book upon the market and make it sell. Ten thousand dollars invested in newspaper advertising will start an inquiry for any nostrum or brand of goods, but a moribund book can never be galvanized into life. What men call luck or chance is the result of law not understood. And the luck that makes a book go is regulated by a law that no advertising expert has yet been able to control. Mystery enshrouds it all. The man who by his genius can blow this mist away and place his hand upon the law that controls the popularity of a good book, shall have riches and honor and undying renown. CONSECRATED LIVES ERE s a thought, Dearie, A Message that I give to you because TO GARCIA I have n t a very firm grasp upon it myself. In order to clarify my mind I explain to you if And thus, probably, do I give you something which is already yours. Grateful? of course you are--there! if if The thought is...
