Excerpt: . . . heart, Thy righteous kingdom speed, --Till my whole life in concord say, The Lord is risen indeed. Oh for an impulse from Thy love With every coming breath, To sing that sweet undying song Amid the wrecks of death! A hail! to every mortal pang That bids me take my right, To glory in the blessed life Which Thou hast brought to light. I long to see the hallowed earth In new creation rise, To find the germs of Eden hid Where its fallen beauty lies, --To feel the spring-tide of a soul By one deep love set free, Made meet to lay aside her dust, And be at home with Thee. And then--there shall be yet an end--An end how full to bless! How dear to those who watch for Thee With human tenderness! Then shall the saying come to pass That makes...
